has prepared for the forthcoming volume Mineral Industry" an exbaustave chapter on the products of our mines for 1803-8 The growth of American mineral industry is unparalleled in the world a history Fritz years ago it was of httle value now it outranks that | are enumerated in a beld, round hand of any other country and is nearly as great as that of France Great Britain and Germany all put together In the production of coal, however, Great Britain still exceeds us. How vast the British coal mining industry is may be gathered from the fact that her annual arot 000,000 081 nadi erom won et tuutu a year That is to say, the little kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland has coal mines producing more every year than the mines of our whole country do The mam reason is that our mines are not yet fully developed although we dig now tight times as much coal as we did 30 years ago

The hard times have of course affected our numeral output. In the last balf of 1893 our iron production fell off chor monsis and suddenly Our combined metal and more al production decrease in 1893 over $79 000,000 Metals fell off more than inner its, such its state, so ip stone, sola and sulphin Of the $70, 000,000 loss more than $30,000,000 was caused by shamkage to value and the consequent diminished production of piz non alone. Malice and Superatition iving to-day were passed mainly by the Republican party. Whether or not these laws are responsible for the present situation it is quite likely that the recent panic would have come even though President Harrison had been re-elected.

As Mr Conger is the most prominent Republican in Ohio and has served for eight years on the National Committee, his we'ds have great weight but his expressions are worm.

THOMAS NAST OF LONDON.

The Remarkable Cover That the Once Great Cartonnist Had In This Country. The news that Thomas Nast has gone to making political cartoons on the Pall Mail Gazette in London caused a ripple of astonishment wherever artists gather in this town. The career that he thus brings to a close in America has indeed been a very remarkable one. About Nast's origin and early life very little has been made public, but it has always been gossiped among the artists that he is partly Italian, German and Jewish, and that before he came to America he was with Garibaldi in that patrict's army. As an artist hefirst went to work for Frank Leslie in this city. The most important work he did for him is said to have been the Heenan-Sayers fight in England. Soen afterward he began work upon Harper's Weekly. He did not at once develop the gitt which made him the most talked of artist and the most powerful cartoonist in America. But from the first he made cartoons and lit-tle else. They were not humorous at the start, but, the year being 1864, were apon war subjects and were patriotic and sentimental. Toward the close of that year, when

Toward the close of that year, when McClellan was nominated for president by the Democrats, Nast began his political work, which ended brilliantly in 1871, when he began his attacks on William M. Tweed. Most of his work up to and at that time was drawn with pen or pencil directly upon the wooden blocks which were to be carved out into wood cuts afterward. He did a part of his work with midia ink "wash" on the wood in the same way. He parted with the Harpers later, owing, it was said, to difference of pultical opinion, but re-turned to The Weeldy after a long ab-sence at a sulary that was considered re-markable. Some said that he got $15. 000 a year, and some said that the figure was $10,000. But his star had declined. Keppler had filled the field and with morits that Nast never had. Keppler had no huntations or fefters. He was an absolute free lance, his sense of humor was broader and his power of satire was keener. Moreover, he made artistic pictures, enhanced by the use of gay colors. Nast could not recover his old place as the chief of our cartoonals. He had made a great deal of money, but it was said that he lost most of it. He went into a western mining venture and spec-opponents.

Mr. Nast lived well in a pretty suburban home and had n any warm friends around him. His personal popularity was very great all over the country. His lecture trips, when he gave blackboard talks all over the country, under him well known in even the smaller cities, and travelers say that today there is scarcely a clubhouse between this city and the Pacific coast wherein the visitor will not see Thomas Na 7's 1 arded face drawn by hauself, framed and in a place of honor. It was his ability to express a popular sentiment in a picture that gave him his yogne. Whether he can remodel his mind to hit the English taste remain o be seen.—New York Sun.

Germany and Our Wheat Export. In 1887 the tax on Russian and American wheat imported into Germany was $11.90 a ton. Feb 1, 1892, this was changed, and a treaty was negotiated with Germany whereby the United States was placed on the most favored nation basis. The duty on our wheat was then reduced to $8.38 per ton, the daty on tye being fixed at the same figare. The import tax on Russian wheat of imaction, more trying to health remained the same as before, so that we had every advantage in the German from, -McClure's Magazine, market. The tax on flour obtained from Russia was #25 a ton. On flour from the United Stan-s it was reduced by the treaty of 1692 to $17.20 a ton. The consequence was that our exports of wheat 19 a new process of galvamzing o Germany in 1892 went up at a bound, more than quadrupling. That year the United States irraished nearly half the wheat that went into Germany.

At this time Russia and Germany were engaged in their mutual cutthroat tariff policy. The German tariff on Russian wheat was raised to $17.85 a ton last August New, however, the Russo-German fariff war having ended Russian imports have been placed by Germany on the most invored nation basis. This year Russian wheat will go to the centing estimations in the conting of empire on the same terms that our wheat does. To raise a bushel of wheat operation there are melted together in the United States and ship it to Germany costs 50 cents a bushel. Russia mary flut gass fragments, 20 parts can do it far more cheaply.

The prespect is, therefore, that there our wheat than there was last year With the great fields of South America forward to the time when our own population will need all our breadstuffs. Until then the thing for agriculturists to do is to diversify their crops, raising less wheat and more of other things Some wheat farmers can probtably turn to dairying, others to fruit and vegotable tarsing, others still to poultry and live stock

Almost everyone has taken up some coupon scheme by which they have procured a set of World's Fair Art Portfolios, commemorative of the many interesting features of the greatest of the world's expositions.

The Fair is dead. Long live the Fair! Let us carry in our minds all "the glory that was of Greece and the grandeur that was of Rome" as we saw it in the days of its existence if we will, but when we are passed away what avails our recollections? Let us do better. Artists have captured all this fugitive splender with trusty camera and practiced pencil, and many splendid series of views of its art and architecture, its landscapes and waterways, its exhibits and curiosities, are the result -- and the very best result. It is the Fair over again for ourselves and our children and their children-to the end of time, if they but preserve it. Let us take the initial step and have the parts of the Art Portfolios bound, that none may be lost or injured.
